Perfect Confidence

Norway People Have Good Reason for Complete Reliance

Do you know how—

To find relief from backache;

To correct distressing urinary ills;

To assist weak kidneys?

Your neighbors know the way—

Have used Doan's Kidney Pills;

Have proved their worth in many tests.

Here's Norway testimony.

Mrs. Myrtle Payne, 237 Main St. says:
"I used Doan's Kidney Pills and am thoroughly satisfied they are a dependable remedy. I had more or less pain across my back and kidneys which annoyed me when stooping or lifting. I found Doan's Kidney Pills good for the trouble and after I used this remedy, pains lessened. I have been practically free from the trouble since taking Doan's and feel they deserve my recommendation." (Statement given June 7, 1916.)

On September 3, 1920, Mrs. Payne said: "The statement I made still holds good. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills
as highly today as I have during the several years past. The great good they did me has lasted and my faith in Doan's

has remained firm."

FROM FLORIDA TO MAINE

By Lydia Lord Shedd

The most famous hotel in the South is Ponce De Leon, in St. Augustine. It has the most luxurious apartments, and the architecture is wonderful. Beautiful tropical flowers and fountains fill the grounds on every side. The Alcazar Hotel is a very popular one also, in front of Ponce De Leon. The New Flagler Hospital is one of the finest in the country. The Governor Alvarez house on St. Francis St. is the oldest house in the United States. Here are many collections of valuable antiques. The "Old Quilting Shop," the oldest house in America was built in 1566. This is on St. George's St. This street is only 19 feet wide. There are many streets here where only two teams or autos can pass at a time. Before the big fire in 1914 there was one street so narrow that a man could touch each side by stretching out his arms, only 5 feet and some inches. We saw the picture of it in the museum in Port Marion.

Here are books, cards and pictures for sale. One is requested to sign their name in a ponderous ledger before entering this room of curiosities and souvenirs. Ponce De Leon discovered Florida in 1513, over six hundred years ago and to-day they have decided to erect a monument to his memory, on the Plaza, near the Old Slave Market. The alligator farm is the largest in the world. There are about six thousand here now. The oldest one is about nine hundred years old, and many young ones. The largest one they have weighs twelve hundred pounds. They don't grow very fast. We have seen one not two feet long, that was ten years old. They lay eggs like a turtle and they place them in sand in a warm place. It takes sixty days for them to hatch. They are great fighters among themselves. We saw one that had his leg bitten off by another alligator. They make a great business of shipping them to all parts of the United States and Canada.

In Marion County are the wonderful Silver Springs. Glass bottom boats are here where one can see the bottom of the springs, the fish, turtles and other aquatic wonders. All the colors of the rainbow are seen here. One can see over the sides of the other boats, beautiful things at the bottom, the water is so clear. Blue Springs are next in size. The flow of water is very great. The submarine gardens and grottoes, so called, and the wonderful formations of nature seen at the bottom of Silver Springs is worth a trip to Florida for that purpose alone. Thousands of tourists yearly visit this wonderful place. Marion County is 392 square miles larger than Rhode Island. This is the home rock center of Florida. In this county the pineapple orange is the finest in the state.

Here there are rolling hills covered with a wonderful growth of pine and hard wood. Here too are great phosphate industries. While in Florida we saw autos and mule teams loaded down with phosphate, every day going to the orchards. A great amount of fertilizer is used here, by those who make a success of fruit raising. The bags are left to rot on the ground. They are called jokes here. They are extra fine ones closely woven. Some of the poultry raisers, use them as a fence, to keep their chickens from straying. We used some of them to braid rugs from. After washing them they were fine, and of a lovely color. The people here never saw one before, could have made a fortune making them, if time and strength had permitted.

The tobacco is planted in hot beds here, in some shady spot, with cheesecloth stretched over the young plants. All through the woods on every side we saw the beds on the roadside. Some had just begun to get them out. At a distance they looked like fields of cabbage plants. There were many warehouses where the last year's crop was curing. They had ventilators at the top.

We rode through many swamps of cypress and oak trees. The oak trees were covered with Spanish moss. They looked like the old fabled, "Dismal Swamps of Old," not very encouraging to tired travelers. When we stopped the car for a lunch at noon the razor-backed hogs would gather round for a bite, too. They were very tame, having no doubt been fed many a tid bit by the tourists on the road. The hogs and cattle are allowed to run wild any where. The road sides were lined with hogs, many fine looking pigs, too. In Florida and Georgia the swine or stock is never confined but allowed to run at large. We asked a farmer if he was not afraid of losing them. He said each one had his brand, and if one strayed they always found them again. Once in a while he lost a fat hog by the tourists getting them he thought. The people at a rule were very honest, and so they seem. After wandering miles away the swine and cattle came back at night, to the place where they were fed.

We saw many groves of pecan, hickory and other nuts, many China berry trees, valuable for the making of beads from the berries. The woods were white in some places with the Dogwood blossoms. Many berry, and plum trees were as wonderful in color as the peach blossoms. We would ride many miles through these woods with these pink and white blossoms on every side. All we could do was to exclaim with wonder at the beautiful panorama before us.

We really believe we have the Florida "sand in our shoes," and next fall will find us longing for the "Sunny South," but I must cut my story short and try and get out of Florida with this letter or the editor will get weary with my trash, and not print the rest of the story about our journey home.

A little more about the Old City by the sea and we are done with Florida for the present. We could write a life time, about the wonderful and beautiful state of Florida, and then could not give the faintest idea of the wealth and beauty that is to be found here. My pen and the feeble mind behind it cannot do justice to one item, say nothing of trying to portray this great and glorious state.

One of the finest beaches in the South for all year bathing is Capo's North Beach. There is a hotel and pavilion, where sea food dinners are served. Near the beach on Marine St. is the Port National Cemetery. Here 139 men of Major Dade's command, were killed by the Indians in 1835. There are many old Spanish buildings on Hospital St. Hot Shot Oven, seen at Port Marion, was used to heat shot to fire at wooden vessels. Bullet holes may be seen in the wall, where prisoners were executed. The St. Augustine Institute of Science and Historical Society have a home in Port Marion. The Cottage of which the old fort is constructed was discovered on Anastasia Island in 1580. Fort Marion was completed in 1756. The sea wall was built by the U. S. Government in 1842. July 12, 1822, the Stars and Stripes were raised over Fort Marion. Hon. Chansey M. Deven presented to the Historical Society a group of Seminole Indians, Osceola returned from the hunt, images in native costume, Osceola Squaw, and son. The child holds a rabbit. An Indian dog lies in the wigwam near by. Many Indian relics of stone are seen here. Our residence while in Florida was in Osceola Park named in honor of this famous Seminole.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Now Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Washington, D. C.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which a physician said I would have to have for a very bad case of female trouble. My system was all run down for two years after my little girl was born. Then I read of your wonderful medicine and decided to try it. I could hardly drag one foot after the other, and after taking six bottles of the Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman. I now do all my housework, also washing and ironing, and do not know what real trouble is. My health is fine, and I weigh 140 pounds. When I started taking it I weighed 97 pounds. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any one who is suffering from female trouble or is run down. You may use this testimonial for I am only too glad to let suffering women know what the Vegetable Compound did for me."—Mrs. Ida Hewitt, 1529 Penna. Ave. S. E., Washington, D. C.

Such letters from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

NORWAY, MAINE

Somehow we cannot help having the idea that there are few towns anywhere any better than Norway, Maine. Being a native of Bryant Pond I cannot admit that Norway is the most beautiful town in Maine. Having been stranded in Norway through lack of transportation,
I cannot consider it the most conveniently located. It cannot compare with Bumford, with its immense water power and great industries, or with Bethel for its wonderful mountain scenery. But with all its failings somehow it seems about the best town in Maine, always excepting Bryant Pond of course.

Perhaps its the people. Greater Boston is full of former Norwegians. When they held their meeting and spoke of the dear old town down in Maine, everyone looked solemn and deep down in their hearts wished they could be right there.
Not only in Boston but in many other cities are to be found natives of Norway
who are a credit to this little Oxford County town. But what about the real residents of Norway. We doubt if one can find a town where the people pull together any better—Norway already has conveniences which would do credit to much larger communities. It has solved its street problem. No one can doubt but what it will just as successfully solve its school problems. Where the people pull together as they do in Norway, big things are bound to happen. Norway is destined to occupy a much larger place on the map of Maine than its early inhabitants ever dreamed. The town has great possibilities. As a shoe center, trade center and summer resort and last but not least on its farms which are among the best in the county.

The citizens and business men, uniting their efforts through the Norway Board of Trade have done much for the town,
yet no doubt it is possible to accomplish
still greater things with a larger membership and a still more united effort. Let the business men, farmers and all citizens continue to boost Norway as they have in the past and the old town will continue to grow and prosper. Maine's slow growth as a state has not been because of location or lack of natural resources.
No state in the East has greater natural resources than the state of Maine. The principal reason for its slow development has been the lack of faith in the state and a failure to pull together for its development. Times are changing. Today it is doubtful if any other state in the East can show greater enthusiasm and loyalty on the part of its own citizens and the years ahead will see Maine taking its rightful place, not alone as a summer resort, but as the great manufacturing, commercial and agricultural state that it is intended to be. Norway, with its splendid public spirit and its warm hearted welcome to the stranger, will continue to grow and prosper, keeping its place as one of the best towns in the good old state of Maine.—Ralph M.
Bacon.

GOOD WORK BY FARM BUREAU

Judging by the reports of county
project leaders read at the Oxford Farm Bureau executive committee meeting,
agricultural community work in cooperation with the College of Agriculture extension service is progressing satisfactorily under the general supervision of County Agent Lovejoy and Mrs.
Anita N. Babb, county home demonstration agent.

In the boys' and girls' club project,
Mrs. H. W. Starbird of South Paris,
leader, there were May 1 enrollments numbering 262, not including the membership of the junior garden clubs at Rumford. There are 32 club leaders in the county. Two new projects, room improvement and bee culture, have been taken up this year, Oxford being the only
county to have a bee club.

The crops leader, A. L. Sanderson of Waterford, reported that 101 farmers in the county are enrolled in the lime demonstrations, an increase of 34 over last year's enrollment. More than 350 tons of lime have been purchased cooperatively and will be used on acid soils in 16 communities. In each community a special demonstrator will supervise the soil testing and the weighing of resulting yields of clover on demonstration and comparison plots. A total of 95 farmers in 18 communities have agreed to top dress their grazing land with nitrate of soda and acid phosphate. About 10 tons of nitrate of soda and twenty tons acid phosphate have been ordered. The call for certified seed potatoes for seed plots and general field use has exceeded expectations. In 20 communities 290 farmers have ordered seed, the total orders amounting to 1500 bushels.

In the dairy project, of which L. E.
McIntire of Waterford is leader, the silage corn campaign is progressing favorably, 106 farmers in 19 communities having enrolled, and 150 bushels of the New York Mammoth flint corn have been ordered for planting. The Central Oxford Cow Testing Association has 27
members, owning a total of 282 cows.

E. A. Barker of Bethel, leader of the farm management project, reported that a large percentage of those who carried accounts last year have resumed this year. There are 53 who started new accounts this year, in addition to 79 of last year's enrollment. The county agent has held meetings in every community where assistance was needed in starting 1923 accounts, and has given personal help to 53 farmers in this way.
M. D. Jones, farm management demonstrator of the College of Agriculture extension service, attended meetings at Norway, Bethel, South Paris and Buck-field and gave instruction relative to factors affecting farm profits as a whole.
At each meeting a study was made of costs of keeping poultry and dairy cows.
A farm survey of the county is in progress and at the next meeting of the executive committee information as to what the survey shows will be given.

The orchard project leader, T. E.
Chase of Buckfield, reported that 5082
apple trees have been ordered under the cooperative plan for planting in this county this spring. The number of men ordering was 50. Of the 20 organized communities 19 will carry orchard fertilization demonstrations, 99 farmers having ordered for that purpose 90,000 pounds of nitrate of soda. Two general orchard meetings have been held, the county agent being assisted by A. K.
Gardner, crops and orchard specialist of the extension service. Pruning, grafting and tree planting demonstrations were included in the county agent's regular schedule.

In the poultry project, B. N. Clifford of Brownfield, leader, 74 poultrymen have agreed to cull their flocks. A culling campaign will be started in August.
The present membership of the Farm Bureau in the county is 380, of whom 476 are men. This is an increase of 40 members over last year's record. There are 18 organized communities for the men and 12 for the women.

Agricultural Department Notes

Peas planted in the school garden plot by the class are up two inches and more. Other smaller vegetables are growing rapidly in the hot beds.

Herbert S. Hill state supervisor of Agricultural Education is expected to make an official visit this week.

Twenty-eight bushels of certified seed potatoes from Presque Isle have been distributed among the boys, seed will be planted between May 12-14. The seed is satisfactory and appears free from disease. Varieties received were Green Mountain and Irish Cobbler. In addition ten bushels have been procured from the Farm Bureau. This seed will be planted for experience and profit.

Freshmen and Sophomores are being instructed in cutting up and disinfecting potato seed, a corrosive sublimate formula is used, proportions 1 oz. of chemicals to 30 gallons of water. This will disinfect 6 bushels, leaving seed in solution one and one-half hours. For every three additional bushels one ounce of sublimate is added to the solution.

Prof. Brown is busy visiting the boys' projects and inspecting their plans for spring work. Various field trips are taken with members of the classes for pruning and grafting.

SCOUTING IN OXFORD COUNTY

Scouts Win High Honors

When the news from National Headquarters reached Oxford County that the National round-up was on for new members to Scouting Oxford County "stepped on the gas," dropped the speedometer and went to it. A President Harding streamer was awarded to all troops taking a 25 per cent. increase (net) from Dec. 31, 1921, to Feb. 15, 1923. This period totalled 13 1/2 months with official orders for round-up arriving on the tenth month.

On February 15th the speedometer, draperies and all were forwarded to National headquarters for computation and re-adjustment. The following letter and statistics was the answer:

My dear Mr. Perham: I am happy to announce that your Council has qualified for the council streamer which is awarded by President Harding. This is being sent you under separate cover and, in addition, 12 troop streamers for the troops in your council territory, which likewise showed the same proportionate increase in enrollment. Your official records of Feb. 15th show a registration of 463 scouts, giving you a 99 1/2 per cent. increase.

We sincerely trust that these streamers will be presented under public auspices and appropriate exercises developed therefore. It may be that President Harding will, over his own signature, provide also a letter to the Council and successful troops. If so, you will be notified and the letters will be forwarded.

May we take occasion on behalf of the National Council and the Executive Board and all of the staff at the National office, to extend to you and those responsible for the successful outcome of your efforts our hearty congratulations and best wishes.

We hope that you will keep up the Round-up Spirit and that many more troops will qualify in the near future subsequent to February, 1923, for which appropriate streamers will be awarded later.

Yours very sincerely,

George J. Fisher, (Signature), Deputy Chief Scout Executive.

Troops successful in the big relay of April 28th. Tucked away in a corner, this message (withstood the hours of steady rain that did its best to disfigure its face with water.)

It's what you do—and not what you say that counts in Scouting!

Doing things is the working motto in Scouting. By this method successful scouting travels on. The boy who really does things worthwhile is the only one who really counts for much. A true scout proves his worth by his everyday life. Regardless of the boy's everyday engaged in, it is the duty of every scout to "do the job up brown." 100 per cent. effort in religion, school, athletics, and work are essential pointers in successful Scouting.

"Do a Good Turn Daily" is the biggest thing in Scouting. It is the "Big Stick" that proves to the public that Scouting is a game above the ordinary run and yet one that appeals to the best in boy or man. The unselfish "Good Turn" is the highest type of American citizenship. Scouting stands for the most exponent of Americanization among boys, for it stretches forth its hand to all boys with an absolutely non-sectarian grip and with the other hand points the way to the final goal—good citizenship.

Council Meeting at Scout Camp

The spring meeting of the Oxford County Council will be held on Friday, May 25th, at 2 p. m., standard (sharp), at the Oxford County Scout Camp.

Representation is due from every town active in scouting in Oxford County. Every local Scout Board should have as many representatives as possible "on deck" to boost the year's program.

The final Round-up of camp plans will be taken up at this meeting. General plans for the carrying of over 300 scouts at the Oxford County Scout Camp are already underway. This meeting will clean up the odds and ends.

Plans for the Spring Rally, formation of new committees, election of necessary officers, and the finance committee reports will be some of the matters of business brought up for action.

Things That Count in Moderate Priced Closed Cars

The Coach is a Hudson-Essex invention. It was created to provide closed car comforts at little more than open car cost.

Closed cars, on high-grade chassis, were too costly for most buyers. So a revolutionary thing was done.

An entirely new closed body design that eliminated all the old, costly manufacturing methods was invented. And production on a scale unknown in the closed car field was started. It brought closed car comforts within reach of all.

The Coach is durable. More than 40,000 owners are proud of it. It has a simple and sturdy beauty. There is ample and comfortable carrying space for passengers and luggage. Body rumbling noises are totally absent. Doors and windows stay tight fitting.

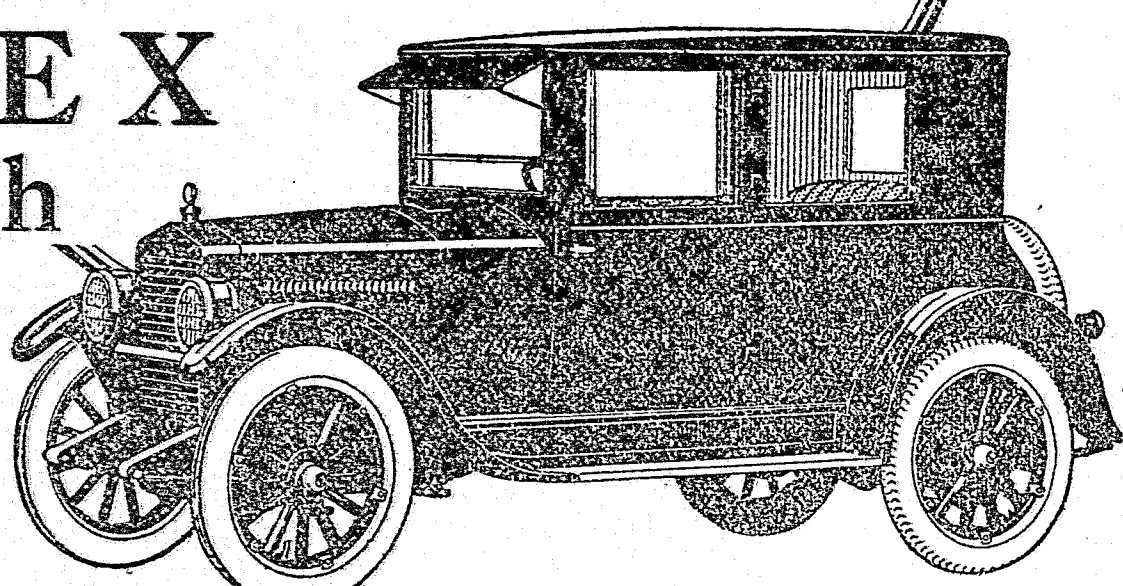

The Coach is built for service. On either the Hudson or Essex chassis it is ready always for any use.

These are the essentials of a moderate priced closed car.

TAXATION AND HIGH COST OF LIVING

I was greatly interested in the statement in the taxation and high cost of living column recently about the State Sup't. of Schools, encouraging schools to evade the law fixing the rate tax limit, in building expensive school houses. I have heard the same thing stated several times by members of school boards. It is well to call the attention of the people to this. It is a good thing to smoke him out—A Citizen.

It was expected at one time during the closing hours of the legislature that the matter of the reservoir dam on the upper Kennebec in the Dead River region had been settled by the Reservoir Company, paying the state $25,000 a year for forty years but upon Governor Baxter and his friends publicly claiming a victory. Several companies in the combine forming the reservoir project backed out and the scheme fell through and the legislature promptly repealed the law it had passed over the Governor's veto. It is plain to see that the Combine cared more for upsetting the Governor's plans than for benefitting the people of the Kennebec valley. The act of the legislature in repealing the vetoed bill was a slap in the face of the Combine. The controversy with the Governor is not dead. There will be some interesting developments in the political field in 1924. The Combine will try to select the candidate for Governor. Mr. Baxter's enemies are determined they shall not—Comment.

CONSTIPATION OFTEN POISONS THE SYSTEM

NATURE HAS PROVIDED RELIEF

For every violation of her laws Nature exacts a penalty; but she also has wisely provided relief, especially for the ailments of the human system. Since constipation is the most common of ailments, Nature endowed certain herbs, seeds, barks and leaves with laxative properties. Early settlers, dependent entirely upon Nature, used the extracts from these plants to relieve and correct constipated conditions.

Over seventy years ago, an old-fashioned Maine country doctor who didn't believe in harsh cathartics originated a prescription known as Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative, which since has given relief to many thousands of constipated sufferers.

The herbs used in its preparation are imported and of strictly pure quality; it helps to correct the cause naturally and relieve its attendant evils; it purifies the bowels as it cleanses.

Here is one of the thousands of cases where Dr. True's Elixir has helped. "As you have been a Godsend to me, that is a friend in need is a friend indeed," I will write and tell you about the value of your medicine—Dr. True's Elixir; believe me, it helped me. I eat everything that comes along; no more diet. I even tried raw onions for a test. Is that not luck after nine long years of only milk and eggs?"—Mrs. J. E. (Nutley, N. H.)

To have a suitable laxative, one which she knows will prove effective, be easy to take and guaranteed pure, Mrs. Peter Velme of North Charleston, S. C., sent up North. She says: "I have great faith in Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, and have been using it for over ten years. I send for it to my old home at Oxford, Me."

A well-known New Yorker writes: "While visiting in historic old Plymouth (Mass.), my family became acquainted with you, Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. It does all you claim for it in aiding digestion and relieving insomnia and constipation. Please ship me six large size bottles, for mother is in need of it."—Wm. L. Ralph.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative, was first a Maine medicine, then New England, now International. 40c, 60c, $1.20.

OXFORD POMONA GRANGE

Pleasant Valley Grange, West Bethel was host to Oxford Pomona Grange, Tuesday, May 1. The day overhead was good and the roads were rather precarious in condition but as many patrons could avail themselves of the train service a good attendance was on hand. Meeting was opened in form, by Worthy Master Harmon Mason, with all officers present except Pomona. Sister Cora Perham of Franklin Grange was appointed to fill the chair. A class of sixteen was found in waiting to receive the degree of Pomona. This degree was conferred in an interesting manner.

A recess for dinner of one hour was declared. The afternoon was devoted to exemplification of the four subordinate degrees by the following granges: Bethel worked the first degree, Bear River, the second degree; Franklin, the third degree; and Pleasant Valley Ladie's degree team gave the exemplification of the fourth degree in an able manner. All the work was highly commendable.

The following granges answered to the roll call: Norway, Paris, Hebron, Bethel, Oxford, Bear Mt., Bear River, Aziscoos, Pleasant Pond, Mountain View, Pleasant Valley, West Paris and New Century Pomona was represented.

The next Pomona Grange will be held with Pleasant Pond Grange, West Paris, June 5, and on June 25 Pomona will be entertained by Bethel Grange. The meeting to be held in Odeon Hall and dining service at the Grange Hall. This meeting is to be a red letter in grange annals as the President of Demeter, Charles M. Gardner is to be present and all the officers of the Maine State Grange. A regular Pomona dinner will be served at noon and the surrounding granges will see that a supper is provided and refreshments during the work of the evening. To this end the Master and Secretary of the following granges are invited to meet with Bethel Grange at their regular meeting on Thursday evening, May 17, to perfect the plans for the meeting of June 25: Pleasant Valley, Mountain View, Bear River, Franklin, Alder River and Round Mountain, and a long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together will surely be a "Booster" for Maine and the grange work.

Charles McInnis, Master of Pleasant Valley voiced a cordial welcome to Oxford Pomona. Rev. G. W. Q. Perham of Franklin Grange made timely remarks for the good of the Order and moved that a vote of thanks be given the host grange for the delightful hospitality extended to the two hundred and fifty patrons in attendance.

All are glad to have Brother Alfred Moss back from the West (and he doesn't seem a bit "puffed up" over his trip). He is chaplain of the Maine State Grange.

But You Can't Ride on the Paint!

Imitation diamonds can be made to look so real and sparkle so brightly that it is difficult to tell them from the genuine.

But try to sell one and you will find out its real worth in a flash.

Same with automobiles. Weaknesses of construction in a closed car can be hidden, for a time, with paint and varnish and fancy fittings. But all is not quality that glitters.

You can't ride on the paint. And when you place such a car in the second hand market, you suffer a heavy depreciation because it lacked real intrinsic value at the outset. Use will never improve a mediocre product.

The second hand floor is the melting pot for automobile values. Cars are stripped of artificial values and only inherent worth counts.

Motor car owners tell us that the trade-in value of any Studebaker car at the end of three or four or five years of useful life is greater than on any other car built today—the percentage of depreciation is the lowest.

No wonder the Studebaker Light-Six Sedan is the fastest selling quality Sedan in the world!

The name Studebaker stands for quality, durability, comfort and integrity.

SEEMED TO BE SUPERNATURAL

First Sight of Airplanes Caused Consternation Among the Natives of Philippine Islands.

When, in order to carry out a survey, airmen visited Joho, Sulu archipelago, Philippines Islands, it was the first time the natives had seen an airplane, and they were greatly terrified, according to a story in the Westminster Gazette.

Some of them were convinced that the machines were sent as emissaries from Allah, and others believed the occupants of the craft themselves—the pilots and the observers—were both all seeing and all powerful.

It was impossible to convince them otherwise, and the airplanes were viewed with dread and as supernatural things. Some of the natives even went so far as to declare the planes were dragons, flown out of the South seas, and destined to wreck vengeance on all bad Moros, according to an old Arabic legend.

There were thousands of Moros in the wilds of Mindanao who had never set eyes on a white man, and to whom the pilots, able to soar aloft like the birds, were altogether outside the sphere of ordinary mortals. The airmen were regarded as objects of great wonderment and to be held in the greatest awe.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE IN PERIL?

"Creeping Paralysis," According to Henry Van Dyke, Is Threatening the Speech of the Nation.

The real perils of the English language today, in my judgment, lie not in expansion or in contraction of vocabulary but much more in a certain noisy carelessness or sloppy indifference; a failure to recognize that thought is desirable not only before speech but also in speech; an apparent numbness to the finer sense of words, written or spoken, in the Yale Review. The effects of this creeping paralysis may be observed constantly in streets and shops and ballrooms, and frequently in books and newspapers. For example, a distinguished historian writes that he proposes to "assess" a certain character when he has no intention of taxing it, but simply means to estimate its worth. A popular novelist makes his hero leave a room "precipitously," yet without throwing him down the stairs or letting him leap from a window. An ardent advertiser proclaims the "slogan" of his ready-made clothing, although his purposes are all pacific. Even a philosopher, a platonist, writes that certain plays "intrigue" him, when evidently he means not that they perplex him but merely that they interest him.

"Scotland Yard"

Scotland Yard is the headquarters of the Metropolitan police of London, and is situated within a stone's throw of the houses of parliament in southwestern London. Formerly the department was housed in a group of buildings surrounding a courtyard near Charing Cross. It derived its name, Scotland Yard, from a palace assigned from the time of Edgar to Henry III, as the residence of the Scottish kings when they visited in London. The present head is Sir Edward Henry, commissioner. The chief is appointed by the crown upon recommendation of the home secretary. The yearly cost of Scotland Yard, according to the latest published statistics, is $15,000,000. Sir Henry is the originator of the system of fingerprint identification, which is rapidly superseding the Bertillon system in all countries.

Powder to Lay Road Dust.

Calcium chloride, a chemical powder, is being used to lay the dust on the stretches of the Prince of Wales highway between Brockville and Ottawa. The experiment is being carried out by the department of highways with a view of determining the relative values of the chemical and of oil for this purpose, and two stretches of roadway, at Spencerville and Manotick respectively, are being treated. The chemical absorbs and retains moisture and forms a coating over the surface of the road. Its cheapness as opposed to an oil treatment is said to be considerable and as both treatments have to be repeated frequently the department hopes to effect a material saving.

Wonderful Surgery.

Remarkable surgery was performed on the third mate of the liner Ruth Alexander just before she arrived in Seattle, Wash. The mate became ill when the ship was 80 hours from Seattle. Two physicians diagnosed the illness as acute appendicitis. A cabin door was used for an operating table, and the doctors performed the operation with sewing scissors, two pairs of forceps and a darning needle. The incision was sewed up with embroidery silk and cat gut. The operation required only 14 minutes. The mate was taken to a Seattle hospital when the ship docked there, and is recovering.

Island Rich in Verdure.

St. Lucia, the largest of the Windward Islands, is twenty-four miles long, and at its widest is twelve miles in breadth. It has an area of 293 square miles. The island is mountainous, and its highest point is 3,145 feet above sea level, while the land is mostly covered with trees and the rapidly growing vegetation of the tropics. Castries, the capital, has a fine port. In 1921 the number of inhabitants of St. Lucia was 51,505.

When a little home-loving woman is seen on the streets a good deal it means she is going to a dentist.

SOUTH PARIS

Paris Grange

An all day meeting was held by Paris Grange, May 5. The Duro Pump Co. of Boston gave four reels of comedy, also an exhibition of the modern pressure water system for farm houses where running water can not be obtained. Bro. Ralph Butts had this in charge. The State Lecturer Bro. Harriman was present and gave an interesting talk on what the Grange had done and what it should do in regard to the shaping of the doings of our State Legislature business. Sister Edith Linnell gave a fine piano solo. After the close of the Grange the members formed in a line and followed the remains of sister Jessica Thayer to the grave at Riverside Cemetery where they performed the Grange burial services.

The next meeting of Paris Grange will be held, May 19, at 8 P. M. and will be "Past Master's night," the chairs being filled by the following: Master—L. A. Bates. Overseer—R. S. Gates. Steward—F. S. Dudley. Ceres—W. S. Starbird. Flora—Charles Dudley. Pomona—A. M. Ryerson.

Mrs. Maria Johnson

Mrs. Maria Johnson, the colored housekeeper and nurse, passed away suddenly May 4 at her rooms in the Maxim Block, South Paris. A member of a family in an adjoining room heard groans and endeavored in vain to gain an entrance to Mrs. Johnson's apartment. Help was summoned and a door was forced. Mrs. Johnson was discovered on the floor dead. Apparently she had tried to light an oil stove, but was overcome before accomplishing the act.

She was the widow of Harry Johnson and they lived many years at Trap Corner, West Paris. Both were well known many years ago at the mountain summer resorts where they had engagements. Mr. Johnson being an expert stable keeper and Mrs. Johnson generally acted as chef. Since the death of her husband, she has resided in South Paris and employed as domestic and nurse. She was born in Washington, D. C., probably 75 and many years ago.

Mrs. Johnson was a member of the West Paris Baptist Church and the funeral was held Monday afternoon in the South Paris Church, attended by Rev. J. L. Wilson. Burial was at West Paris in accordance with arrangements made by the deceased some time ago.

Rev. Charles M. Hall

After a long illness, Rev. Charles M. Hall died at his home in South Paris, May 8, at the age of 68 years.

Mr. Hall was born in Barre, Mass., and entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church and continued in that service for thirty-five years. For eighteen years he was a member of the New England Conference in Massachusetts and had pastorates in Maine, New Hampshire, New York and Tennessee.

Ten years ago Mr. Hall married Mae Field of South Paris, and when he retired from the ministry by reason of his failing health five years ago, they came to make their home with Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Field, where they have since been.

Mrs. Hall survives him, as does one daughter by a former marriage, Mrs. W. DeWitt Folger of Clarence, N. Y. There are two grandchildren.

Mr. Hall was a member of Mount Vernon Lodge, F. and A. M., of Newport, N. H., and of the Chapter of the Tabernacle at the same place, also of the Order of the Eastern Star.

There were prayers at the home Saturday morning, and the remains were taken to Clinton, Mass., where the funeral was held. Burial is in Woodlawn Cemetery at Clinton.

Mrs. Ralph Hemingway is at the Central Maine General Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. L. C. Morton and Julia P. Morton returned from Falmes, Pa., Thursday. Thomas Cleary, in company with his brother-in-law, Harry Williams of Hebron, was in Boston over the week end to meet Ruby Williams, who has come from Dublin, Ireland, and will visit relatives in America.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton C. Maxim passed the week end in their cottage at Pennessewas Lake. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. George C. Fernald of Augusta. Flora Murch, a member of the Stanton Bird Club, attended the exhibition of that society at Lewiston, recently.

Mrs. Mary Staley has entered upon her duties as housekeeper for Miss Mary Burchfield at Paris Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Wheeler and two children of Wakefield, Mass., motored here Saturday and with Alton C. Wheeler's family spent Sunday at Shag Pond. P. E. Wheeler, who passed the winter in Wakefield, came with the party to remain during the summer.

Roger Davis and family have vacated the Morton house and returned home to Paris Hill. Mrs. Davis and children have returned from Montclair, N. J., after visiting several weeks.

Hobart Kenney and Clarence Linseott will engage in the bottling business. They have purchased the equipment of the Paris Bottling Co., in the brick grange hall on East Main street and will carry on business there. The well known "Swift spring" near High street will supply the water. They also plan to run a spring water delivery about the village.

Harry B. Holden is ill with small pox as announced by the attending physician and health authorities. Free vaccination in the schools started Saturday when a large number of the high school pupils appeared at the Community Nurse rooms on Pine street. The village grades were held Monday and Tuesday.

Supt. of schools, A. B. Hayes, will occupy the lower tenement in the house on East Main street recently occupied by Ralph Butts. Mr. Mason will live up stairs.

Rehearsals are in progress for two school operettas under the direction of Helen M. Barnes, the supervisor of music. "Love Pirates of Hawaii" will be staged by high school pupils sometime this month. "The Trial of John" and "Tale" will be presented by the grades in June, together with a program of folk dances and other entertainment by the smaller scholars.
